

SOCIAL COMMITTEE WELCOME

The Social Committee welcomes you to Fairways III. Whether you are a new owner or a visiting “Snowbird” here are some items of interest that help maintain harmonious living here at Fairways III.

Social Functions:

All activities planned by Fairways III committee are open to all condo residents and their overnight guests. From January through March there is usually something going on every week. Once or twice a month there are special events. All activities and information are posted on the bulletin boards located by the mailboxes by both buildings. The clubhouse may be used privately but please check with the Social Committee Chair to make sure an activity is not planned. A calendar is posted on the bulletin board. If you are posting any information please post on both boards. Please check bulletin boards frequently for upcoming events.

Weekly activities may include:

- Early walk with your neighbor
- Prayer group meeting
- Stretch class
- Yoga
- Aqua fitness
- Card games Euchre, Texas Hold-em poker
- Bingo
- Arts and crafts
- Happy hour daily at pool side or under the pergola
- Shuffleboard
- Baseball games
- Dinner shows

Parties sponsored by Social Committee have included

- Valentine
- St Patrick pub night
- Pool party
- Pot luck dinners
- Horse races
- Shuffleboard tournament

Library

The Social Committee members maintain the library in the clubhouse. Books may be borrowed and read. Please return them in the basket provided when you are finished.

Shuffleboard Court

The shuffleboard court is for use by all residents. The equipment is stored in the pool house and should be returned when you are finished. We have a fun tournament that we hope all will join. Basketball/Pickleball court is also for your enjoyment and balls are available on the outside of the clubhouse with the pool noodles

Gas Grills

The grills which are located in the pool area and the courtyard are for residents use. Please be courteous and clean the grill after using. Utensils are available for use in the clubhouse.

Fairways III is maintained by residents who are volunteers. We hope you will enjoy your time and donate your time or talent to help out.

Please remember to check the boards daily for new information.